

Terms and Conditions

The materials presented on the Statewidestaging.com.au webpages and its sub-directories are provided voluntarily as a public service.

The information and advice provided is made available in good faith and is derived from sources believed to be reliable and accurate at the time of release on the Internet. However, the information is provided solely on the basis that readers will be responsible for making their own assessment of the matters discussed herein and are advised to verify all relevant representations, statements and information.

Changes in circumstances after a document is placed on the Internet may impact on the accuracy of the information. Additionally, materials may be maliciously vandalised. No assurance is given as to the accuracy of any information or advice contained after publication on the Internet.

Material on the Statewidestaging.com.au webpages and its sub-directories include links to external Internet sites. These external information sources are outside of Statewide Corporation's control. It is the responsibility of the Internet user to make his or her own decisions about the accuracy, currency, reliability and correctness of information found.

Each user waives and releases the owners of Statewide Corporation, Statewide Staging, Coastal Marquees and their servants to the full extent permitted by law from any and all claims relating to the usage of material or information made available through the Statewidestaging.com.au webpages and its sub-directories.

In no event shall the Statewide Corporation, Statewide Staging and Coastal Marquees be liable for any incidental or consequential damages resulting from use of the material. Statewide Corporation, Statewide Staging, Coastal Marquees and their servants do not accept liability for any injury, loss or damage incurred by reliance on the information or advice provided in the Statewidestaging.com.au webpages and its sub-directories or incorporated into them by reference.
